

Neighborhood News

As Told By Our Assistant Editors.

Prairie Fork.

The weather in this vicinity continues to be very dry. There has not been any rain since the seventh of April. A great many of our farmers have never finished planting corn. The gardens are about dead, pastures have given out and the corn has about quit growing. Altogether people out here have a poor prospect.

Miss Mattie Cox of Malden, Mo. was the charming guest of Miss Blanche Gregory a few days last week.

Miss Nellie Leach is visiting her aunt Mrs. Bush of Callaway.

Little Miss Orpah Allen of near High Hill is making an extended visit to her grand parents and other relatives.

Miss Vera Ham of Montgomery City is the guest of her cousin Little Blanche Leach.

The "Just Us" club held its regular meeting at the home of Miss Margurite Baker. The club seems to be flourishing.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Robinson of Shamrock was buried at the Bryan graveyard Friday morning which makes four burials at that place in one month.

Mrs. Hattie Dixon and Mrs. Lucy Crews of Readsville visited in this neighborhood Thursday.

Burton Appling, brother and sister are visiting their uncle Joseph England and family near Readsville a few days. XXX.

Wellsville.

Amos Hosto of near Warrenton, is the guest of relatives here.

Miss Lucy Yelton, who has been in St. Louis for some time returned home Friday.

Ray Rollins of St. Louis is visiting relatives here.

Marvin Walker, of Martinsburg spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives.

John McQuie left Friday for St. Louis where he will stay for some time.

Mrs. J. E. Hosto, who has been visiting friends at Pendleton for several weeks returned home Saturday.

Jim Wilson who is working at Glasgow, Mo., spent Saturday and Sunday with homefolks.

Miss Essaline Berwanger is visiting relatives in St. Louis.

Ralph Taylor and wife of Martinsburg were here shopping Friday.

Miss Evelyn Sharp was visiting friends in Montgomery the first of the week.

Ran and Hugh Moran of St. Louis are the guests of their parents here.

Leslie Finley and wife came up from St. Louis Saturday night to spend the Fourth.

Claude Leach and Forest Hubbleston of Mineola were here Saturday.

Mrs. Will Reusch of St. Louis is visiting her parents here.

Miss Arline Barker, who has been the guest of friends in Danville returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Mayme Betts and children of Utah were visiting the formers mother here last week.

Howard Rodger was down from Mexico Sunday, the guest of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lovelace and little son Carl spent Sunday in Montgomery.

"Grandma" Gilliland is still very low with no hopes of her recovery.

Miss Zella Eichor of this place is visiting friends in Vandalia.

Jesse Polston of Moberly visited relatives near town last week.

We are glad to know Elmer Linenschmidt, who is at Eureka Springs, Ark., is improving in health.

Miss Leta Enslin was the guest of relatives near Cuiver last week.

The Wellsville mill is going up rapidly and it will not be long until it is completed.

Chas. Roberts spent Sunday with relatives in Montgomery.

Miss Lula Wilson is the guest of her sister at Jerseyville, Ill.

Mrs. Boone Ford spent Sunday in Montgomery.

H. G. Penn of Moberly was the guest of friends here the first of the week.

Mrs. Bertha England of Callaway County is the guest of Miss Carrie Appling.

Miss Lucy Paxton left Saturday for St. Louis and Omaha, Neb., where she will spend her vacation with relatives and friends.

Mrs. A. Jacobs of St. Louis is visiting Mrs. Dr. Blain and Mrs. David Lehnen of this city.

Mrs. Theo. Berwanger who has been visiting her son, D. H. Berwanger, in St. Louis, for the two months has returned home.

Capt. Kempinsky informed us that another oil drill will commence operation on the Stetson place in about 20 days.

Frank Taylor of St. Louis is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Taylor of this city.

Rev. H. J. Corwine, former pastor of the Christian church of this city, passed through here Sunday en route to his home at Columbia, Mo.

Rev. John Wilson pastor of the First M. E. Church at Meadville, Mo., was the guest of relatives here the first of the week, and preached at the M. E. church Sunday night.

Among the visiting members, who attended the Masonic Lodge here Saturday were: Dr. Crockett, C. R. Ball, Geo. See, Col. Tippet, W. M. B. Cook, and Isaac Best of Montgomery, Dr. W. D. Graves of St. Louis, J. H. Scott Fred Watkins, and N. M. Friedman of Martinsburg.

Cross Roads.

July enters hot, dry and dusty.

Miss Emma Faulhaber visited Miss Emma Kraft Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kraft visited W. E. Holt Sunday.

The busy hum of the threshing machine was heard in this vicinity last week.

James Estes and family of Montgomery were visiting relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Blackshaw is on the sick list this week.

Miss Mollie Kraft and little niece Miss Annie Kraft returned from a visit to the formers sisters at Nevada, Mo. Both report a pleasant time.

Miss Gertrude Kraft visited at George Walkers Sunday.

Elmer Porter commenced working for Mrs. Lena Smith last week.

Milton and George Singleton visited at George Walkers Sunday.

James Martin and family visited near Olney Saturday eve and Sunday.

Messrs Wm. Reid and Wm. White have erected a grist mill at the formers place and are prepared to furnish the public with excellent meal. Every one should give them a trial at least.

O. V. Whitney of near Middletown was in this vicinity Saturday.

Little Miss Emma Estes of near Bellflower is visiting her grand-parents Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Maupin.

F. E. Kraft and C. W. Fuhr attended Sunday School at Walnut Grove Sunday.

RUNABOUT.

Danville.

Born to the wife of Charley Barton, June 29th 1901, a girl.

Jack Maiden and Lou Renner of Montgomery City are papering the court house this week. Now if the building had a new roof and a fresh coat of paint, we would have a very respectable looking court house.

Tilford Taylor has a very sick child.

Elmer Brown of Montgomery City preached at the Christian church Sunday night.

The drouth is causing many farmers to sell their surplus stock at almost any price.

Wallace Keith has taken his bunch of horse to the south part of the county.

Many of the farmers are mowing their oat crop, they being to short to save with a binder.

Fruit will be very small and knotty on account of the drouth.

The field of Sam Baker's that was planted in corn and destroyed by chinch bugs, he has sowed in navy beans.

Several of our citizens are hauling water. Stock water is becoming scarce in this section.

The melon crop will be short, and some of our melon raisers are daily watering their vines.

Pastures have dried up, and meadows that have been cut look hot enough to burn.

Sam Baker has the best piece of meadow in this section.

UNCLE ST.

Hazel Dell.

Mrs. Ella Cowherd is on the sick list.

Little Miss Verli Stupp of Chillicothe is visiting friends and relatives in Middletown.

Mrs. Lizzie Davis is suffering with the rheumatism.

Children's Day was observed at Walnut Grove on June 23. There was a large crowd in attendance, and all present reported a very pleasant time.

E. G. Stipp was in your city Wednesday.

Quite a number from this vicinity are attending the Institute at Middletown.

Everett White was bitten by a water-moccasin, but nothing serious has resulted from the bite.

C. W. Kraft, wife and baby visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hassler on Children's Day.

Clyde Beck of your city was in these parts in behalf of the Park's Music House.

John Stipp of Chillicothe is here at the bedside of his baby Helen, who is quite ill.

FELIA AGRICOLA

Bellflower.

Oat harvesting is the order of the day.

Miss Annie Boone is on the sick list.

Mrs. Susan Baxter has been quite sick for several days.

J. W. Middlecamp lost a horse from the heat last week.

Last Saturday while Mrs. Will Blue and Mrs. George McClure and children were out riding the horse became frightened and ran off throwing the occupants from the buggy and bruised them up considerably but no one was seriously injured.

Rev. W. T. Roley preached at Horet church on West Prairie Sunday.

Miss Mallicoate of Lincoln county is visiting her sister Mrs. Chas. Strack.

Misses Tressie Stewart and Alice Bishop attended a W. C. T. U. at Hartford last week.

Gus Angle visited homefolks last Sunday.

Several of the young people of this community spent the Fourth at Wright City.

Born to Mrs. Marshall Phillips last Tuesday a fine girl.

FINCHSLA.

Gamma.

Will Goshorn is quite sick.

Mrs. Kate Evans is able to be out after several weeks of illness.

There was a musical at Mrs. Baxter's Saturday night.

SNOWDROP

HIGH PATENT

makes perfect bread—light, sweet, wholesome and nutritious. SNOWDROP is a flour of quality at a common flour price. Ask your next door neighbor; she knows.

Snowdrop's Friends Are Legion.

We Need You and You Need Us!

Else we would not be so persistent in soliciting your trade. We are proud of the fact that our list contains 75 per cent of the best people in this community—the very cream of trade. We want to sell Flour, Feed, Seed, Fertilizers, etc.

THAT'S WHY WE NEED YOU.

We believe we can pay you just a little more than the other fellow for your Wheat, Corn, Oats, Hay, all kinds of Produce, Old Iron, Rubber, etc., and give you fair, honest, and courteous treatment, and

THAT'S WHY YOU NEED US.

Get our prices before you buy or sell and we will prove to you the above statement.

Yours very sincerely,

E. H. Algermissen.

Frank Beck left Wednesday for Atchison Kan.

Henry Hupe of Bellflower was here Monday.

L. C. Pittenger and wife were calling on friends on West Prairie Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Maggie Anderson and Miss Nellie Hogsett spent Tuesday with Mrs. Lizzie Davis.

Jas. Sparks and wife of Marling were here Thursday.

Mesdames Ollie Cushman and Eva Heaton and Miss Mittie Logan attended the district W. C. T. U. convention at New Hartford last Wednesday and Thursday.

The County Christian Endeavor Convention will be Saturday and Sunday, July 20th and 21st at Brush Creek church.

Our Gamma band that has been so popular the past four years has reorganized and is prepared for the field again. This is one of the necessary evils and should be encouraged.

New Hope.

Oat Harvest commenced this week.

Corn is standing the dry weather very well it seems but how long can continue it is hard to tell.

Mrs. A. Oliver purchased a new buggy last week of J. T. Nunnally of Montgomery.

Emmett Oliver was on the sick list last week something like duml, chills.

William Johnson visited Wm. Appling and family last Sunday.

Born to Ed Poindexter and wife Thursday June 27, a twelve pound girl. Ed survived the shock and went to cutting oats the next day with his new Deering Binder.

Leonard Brown has gone to Kansas to work in the wheat field as has Bob Flpps and W. L. Fipps.

Miss Lula is still on the sick list but is some better.

Rev. I. M. Oliver visited A. J. Oliver and family Monday.

Merrell Oliver and J. E. Dickey attended the lecture of Prof. Million at the first Baptist church in the city Sunday night.

Miss Emma J. Dickey of San Francisco Cal., is visiting her father Gideon Dickey here this week. They had not seen each other for 35 years.

Mrs. I. M. Oliver was in Montgomery City Monday evening on business.

William Appling is on the sick list this week. G. E. Ballard of Montgomery City was in this neighborhood Sunday.

U. G. GUESS

Peytonia.

Isaac Goodman, George Miller and Harry Patton were here Sunday.

Born to John W. Willis a boy on the 22nd of June.

Miss Stella Ingram is visiting relatives in St. Louis.

George Frank was at Montgomery City on business last Saturday.

There was a fish fry on Loutre near the Iron Bridge on the Williamsburg road last Friday. A good many were there and all report a good time.

The dew berries are drying up on the vines half green.

William Davis has a splendid crop of wheat on Samuel Weeks's farm on Loutre.

William A. Graham, James W. Gibson and Jackson Mitchell, and several other men seined in Loutre creek recently.

There was a heavy rain and some hail between Montgomery and Loutre creek west on Tuesday the 25th but there was only a slight shower west of the creek.

J. A. D.

Jonesburg.

G. W. Van Ness was in St. Louis last Thursday buying new goods.

Mrs. L. Wilson and son of Montgomery visited her daughter Mrs. E. R. Fuller at this place Wednesday and Thursday.

Kirk Owings and wife came down Wednesday from Mexico to visit friends relatives here.

Joe Bush of High Hill was here Wednesday on business.

Douglas Wyatt returned to St. Louis Thursday after spending several days visiting relatives and friends at this place and Prices Branch.

J. R. Wright was in Warrenton Thursday on business.

Mrs. Nettie Vallier of Rolla Mo is here visiting her Mother Mrs. J. D. Austin.

Mrs. F. A. Lane was in St. Louis last week on business.

Miss Floy Cope was in Warrenton Friday on business.

Mrs. Cloe Stephens and Miss Effie Kimbrough spent the latter part of last week in St. Louis visiting friends.

Lee Norton of St. Louis called on a Jonesburg friend last week.

Lou Proffit went to Warrenton Friday to have dental work done.

Mrs. Emma Kribben of Wellston came up Saturday morning to spend the summer with her son Dolph.

Henry Fleahman was down from High Hill Saturday on business.

Mrs. W. A. Jones spent Tuesday in Warrenton.

Judson Palmer of Marshall came down Saturday to visit home folks.

P. A. Torbett of St. Louis is here visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. C. Lavender returned home Tuesday after a months absence to Marthasville and Jefferson City.

New Florence.

Rev. White of Moberly occupied the pulpit at the C. P. Church last Sunday. At evening services Misses Lizzie and Violet Leavell united with the church and were baptized the following morning in the pond at O. E. Stewards, adjoining the C. P. Church. Bro White made a very favorable impression on our people during his short stay here.

Mrs. Shadwell of Wellsville is visiting her brother S. A. Williamson and also looking at several pieces of town property preparatory to buying a home for herself here. We hope she will become a resident of this place in the near future.

Rev Roberts and wife have been absent the past week visiting relatives and friends in St. Charles County. Rev. Linn of Mexico filled his appointment at the M. E. C. S. last Sunday morning.

Jay Cardwell who has good position in Chicago spent a couple of days with his mother at this place the past week.

A. S. Neel was called by telegram to the bedside of his father who is very sick at his home near Calio Macon County. He left no the evening train Tuesday for this place.

R. S. Chandler shipped out two carloads of fat cattle Tuesday night.

Mrs. E. A. Wilson returned from her visit in Fulton Saturday afternoon.

A jolly crowd of young people from this place camped out at Grahams rock near Mineola a couple of days last week the party consisted of Misses Lizzie and Violet Leavell, Tressie and Rachel Stewart Minnie Lewis, Susie Pemberton, Grace Davault, Lottie Shroeder, and Fannie Ford. Messrs Charley See, Austi Dixon, Lee Pemberton W. L. See, Bruce Davault, Jack Garrett, Earl Wilson, Will Finley and Harry Darning. nearly all of whom are members of the C. E. society and their much loved President Mrs. Annie Moore kindly chaperoned the young ladies while Mr. J. U. Knox preformed a like office for the young men and added much to the enjoyment of all the young people who were unanimous in the reporting a delightful time. Puella.

Miss Fanny Ford returned to her home in Montgomery City Monday after a delightful visit at her Uncle home.

Jerry Janssen has been on the sick list this week.

Dr and Mrs Holcomb issued invitations to the younger society folks for Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the gathering was in honor of their nephew Mr. George Hardy of St. Louis who is their guest for the present. The occasion was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Holcomb as usual served the daintiest and most refreshug ices and other confectionary which were highly complimented by the guests, and their entertainers were profusely thanked for such a delightful evening.

A large concourse of people attended the funeral of "Uncle Dickey Gaenweel" as he was familiarly known. Whose death occurred at his home south of town last Wednesday and funeral were held Thursday at the M. E. church thence to the city cemetery. Richard Greenwell was born in Kentucky March 14, 1815, died at New Florence, Mo. June 25 1901 after a 50 years residence near here. PUELLA